Mr Benjamin Carleton

The following is the statement of account of taxes of the land of John Evans Esq in this town - viz -

Taxes of 1821 for which the land was sold	6.58
charges of sale April 1822	1.13
Interest on do 20 percent to this time	5.48
	<hr/> 19.19
balance of taxes to 1820 inclusive left down	2.19
settlement with Saml Little Esq	3.15
Taxes of 1822 - still unsettled	2.91
Taxes of 1823 - still unsettled	2.91
	<hr/> total $ 27.44

(I do not know but there is another charge of about 3.00 for advertising in Portland)

The sale I think was 3^d April 1822 or thereabout & therefore it can be redeemed any time before next April. If you should send the money any time before that, I will see it redeemed &
the business settled free of expense - The residue may also be settled any time before April, & upon the receipt of the money I will send you proper discharges for the whole -
